

We help anyone aged under 25 years in New South Wales, at any time, with any legal problem.

Our help is cost free.

Judgement free.

And totally confidential.

If you need to talk to someone about anything that's not an emergency, you can call or chat online to:

- Kids Helpline to talk about stuff generally on 1800 55 1800
www.kidshelp.com.au
- eheadspace to talk about tough times or mental health issues on 1800 650 890 www.eheadspace.org.au
- 1800RESPECT to talk about sexual assault or family/relationship violence on 1800 737 732
www.1800respect.org.au
- Lifeline to talk about suicide and life crises on 13 11 14
www.lifeline.org.au

In an emergency, please try to get to a safe place and call 000 (Triple Zero) immediately.

Youth Law Australia acknowledges the Traditional Owners of the lands on which we work across New South Wales. We pay our respects to the Traditional Owners, Custodians and Elders of those lands – past and present - and to the young people who are working towards a brighter tomorrow.

Young Workers' Rights Service

yla.org.au

helping young people
since 1993

About the Young Workers' Rights Service

The Young Workers' Rights Service is based in Sydney and is funded by the Fair Work Ombudsman's Community Engagement Grants Program to provide a full, free and confidential employment law practice for young workers (24 and under) and their supporters in New South Wales including:

- legal information and advice on workplace rights, responsibilities and entitlements
- assistance with workplace disputes
- assistance with lodging applications
- legal representation
- education
- other services.

The Young Workers' Rights Service is for all young workers and especially welcomes contact from Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander young people, international students, school students, migrant workers, CALD workers, workers with disability, apprentices and trainees, workers in sham employment situations and workers whose mental health and wellbeing have been affected.

Have you been treated unfairly compared to other workers?

Are you underpaid?

Does your boss make inappropriate comments or swear at you?

Have you been fired for no reason?

You aren't alone!

Young people tell us all the time about problems like this at work.

The most common problems young people have at work include:

- pay issues
- getting fired unfairly
- discrimination
- sexual harassment
- bullying
- racism.

If you have experienced any of these issues, we encourage you to reach out to us for help.

Everyone has the right to feel safe and respected at work.

How to get our free and confidential legal help

Call 1800 953 673 (available 9am - 5pm, Monday to Friday).

Telephone interpreting is available.

You can also send an online enquiry to <https://gethelp.yla.org.au> (available 24/7).

For free legal information visit www.yla.org.au.

For administrative enquiries:

Monday to Friday, 9am -5pm

admin@yla.org.au

(02) 9067 6510

Scan the code to get help now.

